(Associated Press Special Cable)

Japanese Government Will Investigate Emigration

TOKIO, Japan, Nov. 28.—It is understood that the American Minister here has called the attention of the Japanese Government to the figures of the American Immigration Department which show a great increase in the number of Japanese entering the United States during the past few months on the Pacific Coast. An investigation has been ordered to ascertain the cause for the issuing of so many passports, without which, under the new ruling in the treaty clause respecting immigration no Japanese can enter America.

Assurances have been given that the Japanese Government is willing to meet the views of the American and Canadian Governments respecting immigration of Japanese laborers.
